Around the Square

Parents received a warning this week—one that should be heeded.

The city's settling basin, which in this light must be considered a very necessary evil, is an ever-present danger to small children during the rainy season.

This settling basin, south of East Grandview avenue, is used for collecting water. At times the water in the separate settling basins is from six to eight feet deep.

Children of from five to eight years old have been found playing in this water settling area, a fact that gives city officials a scare.

These kids could so easily drown just as they have drowned in water-filled sump holes in other parts of the county.

This area is surrounded by a stone fence, and its entrances are designated and chained. The signs read "Keep Out." But what good does a sign do a child that cannot read.

Obviously, the settling basin cannot be closed. We depend upon it for water.

But parents could use some care in seeing that their children do not use this ground as a play area. Keep them out! We do not want a tragedy in Sierra Madre!

As pointed out in the Square a few weeks ago:

Supervisor William A. Smith will run again.

At Christmas time he said he would retire. But he has been asked to run—and he couldn't turn it down. It's the old faithful firehouse answering the call.

Sierra Madre, actually, is one of the few cities of the county that provides the rubbish and garbage pickup as it is in effect here. Rightly, we agree, it is a municipal problem. But many cities fail to accept it as such.

And speaking of this, we might say that since "John's A-1 Disposal" has assumed the responsibility of picking up the "burnables," City Hall reports very few complaints that John himself doesn't straighten out with a personal "conference." The service is such an improvement that it's worthy of comment. One couldn't miss it.

Letters were going out this week to residents for support of the Sierra Madre Historical Society's Annals, a history of the city.

Publication Secretary Edna Hewitt pointed out very emphatically that this was not an appeal for a handout. The publication will support itself, and the book is well worth the $3.50 that represents actual costs of the limited edition.

Orders for the history may be left at the NEWS office.

Councilman Henry Nuetzel really gets around when he starts a campaign. He's in the middle of the V.F.W. Washington's birthday dance, Feb. 28.

We note that as a result of coincidence—because the mention had a part of the stories—the V.F.W. dance last week was tied in with the Square, VFW ticket sale, Kiwanis, Boy Scouts and Youth Meet of the Coordinating Council—five stories.

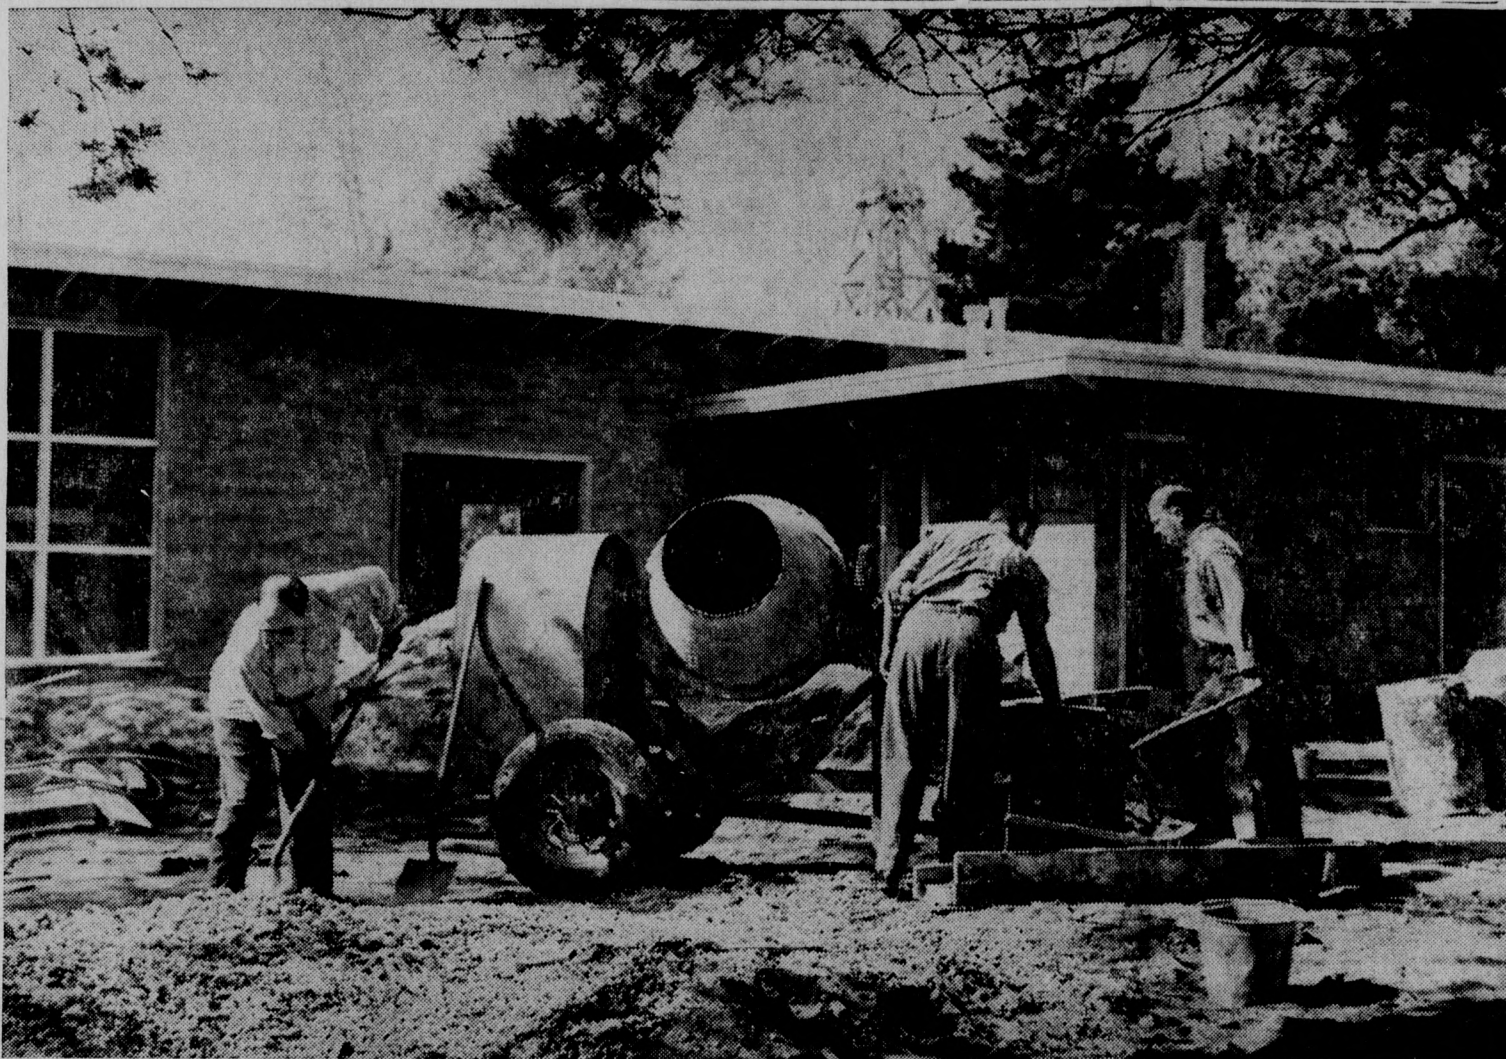

Nuetzel is publicity chairman—and that's coverage.

The LOS ANGELES BOARD OF PUBLIC UTILITIES this week "authorized" P.E. to substitute buses for the big Red rail cars on eight rail lines—including Sierra Madre's rail line.

We are indignant! Since when did an L.A. board have power to authorize any such change in S.M.

(It might be pointed out that the State Public Utilities Com-

Ticket Sales Continue for Ball Field

Ticket sales and generous cash contributions highlighted efforts in the VFW-sponsored campaign for our city's new Baseball Field during the last week.

According to Henry Nuetzel, City Councilman and VFW spokesman, arrangements for hauling dirt have been completed, and action only awaits a more progressive collection of returns.

"Once the dirt is in place, the bleachers will be moved behind home plate where, it is hoped, funds for their hasty repair will be quickly forthcoming," Mr. Nuetzel said.

He announced that tentative date for opening the new Ball Park is April 2. The semi-pro teams will clash at this time as an opening feature and many Sierra Madre players are expected to be in the lineup.

City Council Hears of Dog Catcher Service

BY ARTHUR HEWITT

Dog Owners were put on warning this week—at least those dog owners who two years ago put City Hall in a turmoil.

The City Council again is shopping around for a dog catcher, and the only likely candidate is the San Gabriel Humane Society—often referred to as the city's erstwhile dog catcher.

A report on the costs of keeping dogs in check, at least the cost of making a reasonably good show at doing so, was presented to the Council.

STATE COMMITTEE OKAYS

ARMORY FOR SIERRA MADRE

The Interim Committee on Military and Veterans' Affairs this week recommended to the state legislature a $5,681,000 program to build 45 armories for the state—including one for Sierra Madre.

The armory, approved for Sierra Madre, would cost $94,000. The legislature is expected to act upon the recommendation at its budget session.

New Nursery Building Fund Still Lacks $750

With approximately $750 still needed to finance the project, work on the new Nursery School is entering its final phases. Members of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School Association hope to complete the building in time to hold their Annual Meeting there on Tuesday, Feb. 28.

George Parr, association president, said Tuesday that plastering of the structure probably will be finished this weekend. Professional plasterers have been used for this phase of the work, he said, but nearly every other stage of construction has been carried out by volunteer workers—principally association fathers.

Installation of windows, laying of outdoor concrete slabs, and clearing the Nursery grounds for landscaping are also planned for this week, Mr. Parr said.

An average of five or six Nursery School fathers work on the building on Saturdays; between 15 and 20 devote their Sundays to the project.

President Parr announced that several of the younger children have been taken on conducted visits of the building, in an effort to acquaint them with their future surroundings. Several groups of two or three children accompanied him.

Smith Says He'll Seek Reelection

County Supervisor William A. Smith announced this week that he would seek reelection in the first supervisorial district, the district which includes Sierra Madre.

He has been a member of the Board of Supervisors since 1938. During that time he has become an expert on Los Angeles County Flood Control projects. He said that he wished to see the projects which he was instrumental in initiating completed before he retires from public office.

Smith had previously announced that he would not seek reelection. Petitions in several parts of the county, including Temple City, were circulated in an attempt to "draft" him for reelection.

FIND YOUR NAME; GET 2 TICKETS

Two free tickets to the Sierra Madre Theatre will be given to the persons whose names are published in between want ads on the Classified Advertising pages of the Sierra Madre News this week. Persons finding their names should appear at the box office of the theatre with proper identification, such as social security cards, and present their name from the paper and free admission will be given.

Edison Starts Field Work For Survey

Announcement was made last week by Robert Green, local manager of Southern California Edison Company, that preliminary field work on the Company's street-lighting survey in Sierra Madre has started.

Conducted by Edison's engineering department, required field work for the survey is expected to be completed within a month.

Mr. Green indicated that a phase of the work will entail the mapping of every light post on Sierra Madre.

"A great many requests for this type of survey in Southern California cities have been received in recent years due to population increases," Mr. Green commented. "With the increase of populations, citizens need additional lighting."

C. O. Wedberg, district manager for the Edison Company, said that this intensive survey, which will include every intersection of Sierra Madre, would be made at no cost to the city.

Recommendations to be made as a result of a study of the survey will be presented to the City Council for action. Mr. Wedberg said that it would then be up to the Council itself to take action for improvement of the street lighting system of the city.

At present the city contracts for street lighting service with the Edison Company, and, Wedberg said, the wattage of the street light bulbs are specified by the city.

Three lighting consultants of the Edison Company are now making the survey.

Purchase of Nursery Land Told

Marshall Retains 5-Year Lease On
Nursery Business

Future use of the Marshall's Nursery and Flower Shop site at 147 W. Sierra Madre boulevard, is still uncertain this week as announcement was made that the property has been sold.

Sale of the land to Malibu Properties Inc. became final in Santa Monica where the transaction recently came out of escrow. The corporation, working through its agent George Page, purchased the site from Donald and Lois Damon, former Sierra Madreans and operators of the Nursery now living in Malibu.

Mr. Page said "nothing definite" has been decided as to what use the property would be put. Asked about the persistent rumor throughout town that a new market would be built there, Mr. Page said:

"No action has been taken along those lines. All I can say is that we are open and receptive to any deal that may present itself."

Cloyd Marshall, who still holds a five-year lease to the Nursery, said he has not learned what the new owners will eventually do with the land.

Councilman Kinney Tosses Hat Into Campaign Ring

Mayor J. Milton Steinberger this week announced that he would not seek reelection at the April 11 municipal election. Councilman William A. Kinney announced that he would.

The mayor, who has been on the Council a full four-year term said that because he would no longer be able to put in full time on city business he would not run again.

He said he had "out-of-state" business to care for. Part of it, he admitted, was a vacation with his wife, the former Virginia Timberlake, in Florida and in Maine.

Steinberger, member of a pioneer Sierra Madre family, has been mayor of the city during his four-year term. He has taken an active part in many civic fund drives as the city's mayor and has been in-

Chamber Plans First Luncheon

First Chamber of Commerce luncheon of the year has been scheduled for Thursday, Feb. 23, at Hillcrest Restaurant.

Chamber President Al E. Morgan announced yesterday that the luncheon will begin promptly at 12:15 p.m.

He indicated that Program Chairman Francis Danielson is planning an interesting program and speaker for the luncheon, details of which will be released next week.

Miss Betty Newton Given 1950 Honor at Founders Day Luncheon Program

Today another Sierra Madre educator will be honored by the Parent-Teacher Association. The event takes place during the annual Founders Day program. The local tradition of presenting a Life Membership in the state P.T.A. was inaugurated two years ago and means a recognition of outstanding educational work and devotion to the school children of the city.

Miss Betty Newton, vice-principal of the Sierra Madre schools will be awarded the distinction for 1950 this afternoon at the luncheon meeting held in the cafeteria.

Miss Newton is a Sierra Madre product, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Newton of 217 S. Baldwin. She attended the local elementary schools, going on to Wilson and Pasadena High, and graduating from UCLA in 1934.

Miss Newton took her Master's Degree from Columbia and since has done extra curricular work at the University of Mexico in Mexico City, specializing in Spanish and Mexican folk lore and last year at Claremont College in the Aspects of Administration. She is an active member of the Omicron Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, and has been a cooperative worker in the P.T.A.

Miss Newton's outstanding work has been recognized as done with the 7th and 8th grades before the grades were transferred to the Pasadena Schools, although she has taught in all the grades during her career. Reports are current that her pupils are found exceptionally well prepared as they enter the higher branches. As a further example of helpfulness Miss Newton is available daily for consultation with

Lt. Col. Walter D. Thurber, 470 Manzanita, has been named assistant commander of the newly-organized Reserve Division of the California National Guard in Southern California.

Formation of the Reserve Division and Lt. Colonel Thurber's appointment as second in command was announced this week by Major Gen. Daniel H. Hudelson, by authority of California's Adjutant-General, Major Gen. Curtis D. O'Sullivan, Colonel Thurber's new duties begin immediately.

Officers and men in the Reserve Division will be selected from a list of citizens who have had previous military experience and, according to General Hudelson, who are "inspired by the patriotic desire to place that experience at the service of the state in the event of an emergency."

The general said reserve units will use the facilities of the regular National Guard and will be prepared to take over and operate these facilities in the event the Guard is called to active duty.

Commanding the Reserve Division units will be Brigadier Gen. Ivan L. Foster, who has a background of many years' experience with the U. S. Army and as an instructor of National Guard units in California and in the Middle West. General Foster is commanding

More than 5000 former "Cornhuskers" of Nebraska are expected to gather Saturday, Feb. 25, at Bixby Park, Long Beach, for their annual Mid-Winter Picnic.

Following the theme, "Early Homesteaders in Nebraska," Dr. Winfield Edson, Baptist minister, will present the principal address. Last year, every county of Nebraska was represented at the picnic.

They will join Mrs. Richards' husband in the city of Dhahran, where he is coordinator of recreation and social services for the American-Arabian Oil Company.

Mrs. de Wright Reports on Planning Congress Meeting

Parking problems in Southland cities were analyzed at last Thursday's monthly meeting of the Los Angeles County Regional Planning Congress, conducted at Carpenters' Restaurant in Arcadia.

Mrs. May de Wright and Mrs. Al E. Morgan attended the con-fab from Sierra Madre, as well as the city's attorney, T. Guy Cornyn.

"Consensus of opinion among the 150 persons present from various cities," Mrs. de Wright said, "was that business activity is dying off in the center of most towns where parking is at a premium."

Many cities, in order to keep their tax structures from crumbling, have been forced to buy off-street parking space representatives at the congress learned.

"In nearly all the cases," she said, "funds for purchasing the land were obtained from installing parking meters."

Spokesmen of several nearby towns said their citizens had waited too long before obtaining parking lots. They kept putting it off until their downtown centers became so complex that land could not be purchased at reasonable prices, if at all.

Mrs. de Wright cited Alhambra as a city that, although reluctant at first, soon discovered parking meters were what was needed to perk up dwindling business.

Officials of that town, she explained, guaranteed their merchants that the meters would be removed at the end of a nine months' trial if they were not pleased with the results. Almost to a man, she quoted Alhambra's spokesman as saying, businessmen praised the new system and insisted that it be retained.

For businessmen who must frequently go out on calls from their stores, Mrs. de Wright said Alhambra offered a novel parking solution.

Instead of inserting a quarter for several hours' parking time and then being forced to lose their place and money when called out on business, merchants of Alhambra are permitted to rent, by the month, canvas hoods to place over meters.

Costing $3.50 a month, the hoods may be carried in the glove compartment of an automobile, and when the businessman returns from a brief call, he places the hood over the nearest, unoccupied meter.

A state law prohibits renting street parking space by the month, Mrs. de Wright pointed out, but this practice is legal and saves the busy merchant much money.

Boy Injured In Bike Fall

William Michael O'Donnell, age 11, suffered a concussion of the brain Monday afternoon when he fell off his bicycle.

And Monday evening, several hours after the accident, he was reported "resting very well" by officials at St. Luke Hospital.

William had been rushed to the hospital with what at first was feared to be a fractured skull. Attending physician, Dr. P. R. Woodworth, after examining the boy, however, diagnosed the injury as "concussion."

The accident occurred on Canfield avenue in Lower Hastings Ranch. The youngster lives at 733 W. Grandview and is the son of Mrs. George Ellis.

Study Group Will Meet

Members and guests of the Sierra Madre Great Books Discussion Group will analyze Machiavelli's "The Prince" when the organization meets Tuesday night, 8 o'clock, at the Park House.

Mrs. Anne Cotter, co-chairman with Harry Eder of the local discussion group, said 36 persons were in attendance at the last meeting Feb. 7.

During that evening, Great Books students considered St. Thomas Aquinas' Treatise on Law, which Mrs. Cotter described as one of the most influential books of their study calendar.

She said a "very active discussion" was enjoyed by all present at the meeting.

Speaker Tells Of China Under Reds

The United States should officially recognize the Chinese-Communist government immediately.

This opinion was included in a talk presented at the Kiwanis Club Tuesday by George Sullwold Jr., a resident of Shanghai for 10 years and head of the English Department of St. John's University in that famous city.

"Russia doesn't want the U.S. to recognize the new Chinese government," Mr. Sullwold stated. "So, by not recognizing it, we are doing Russia a favor."

Mr. Sullwold pointed out that if we did make official notice of the Chinese-Reds, we would be able to exert far more influence on what goes on in China than we can now do.

"As it is, we have no official entry into the country. And we can't gain anything by delaying," he said.

In calling for realistic thinking concerning the Chinese situation, Mr. Sullwold cautioned Kiwanians not to consider the Communist regime a mere "passing phase" in China's history.

"It is far more than that," he declared. "It is the culmination of a social revolution which began back in 1929." Citing the ineptitude and inefficiency of the Nationalist government under Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek, Mr. Sullwold said most of the Chinese held this viewpoint:

"Nothing could be worse than what we now have; let's give Communism a try."

Most enthusiastic advocates of the social revolution which ended when the Chinese Reds marched into Shanghai were college students and soldiers. These groups wholeheartedly accepted the new regime.

"Some of the more mature students, however, are now not as enthusiastic as they were a few months ago." (Mr. Sullwold left Shanghai in September, having experienced four months under Red control.)

He criticized the weakness of the Nationalist government, relating how rapidly its forces collapsed as the Communists approached.

Morale of the Nationalist armies was very low, according to the speaker. Discipline and honor were lacking among the soldiers, and they deserted in large numbers to the Red ranks.

Mr. Sullwold said many students of the China problem feel an eventual split will occur in the Communist ranks. As Russians move in to help set up the new governmental bureaucracy, the Chinese will resent it and want to retain only Chinese Reds as leaders.

"The issue will be whether China or Russia will rule," he said.

Chairman of the day was Past President Dr. Earl Gosard. Only guest at the Tuesday meeting was Dr. Reynold Pease.

Two Fined As Speeders

Two persons were fined for speeding in traffic court Saturday.

Donald Joseph Jeffrey, 1649 San Pasqual, Pasadena, handed over $15 to Court Clerk Ruth Custer for reportedly driving 40 miles per hour on Sierra Madre boulevard between Lima and Michillinda—a 25-mile zone.

The second offender was a minor, Richard H. Hixson, 12957 E. Valley boulevard, Puente, whose mother appeared in court to pay the $15 fine. Hixson had been charged with speeding and "running" a boulevard stop sign.

City Chorus Member Is 'Missing'

Held back until now for confirmation, at last it must be revealed as fact that a member of the Sierra Madre Community Chorus has been missing for several weeks.

Local custom and taboo make it inexpedient at this time to mention the name of this individual.

However, if this item comes to the eye of the missing one, or to a friend's eye, it is hoped that the missing member will be propelled by either outside or inside urging to turn up sound and smiling at next Monday's rehearsal at the school auditorium at 8:00 p.m. Since there are a baker's dozen of him (and her) missing, such a return will greatly hearten the president, the director, and the other Chorus members in their hope and intention of giving a good performance of the concert of sacred music at the Congregational Church on Good Friday evening, April 7. New candidates for the Chorus also are welcome.

According to the Chorus member delegated to release the foregoing news item, the program being rehearsed, while somewhat difficult, "is of such universal appeal in theme and beauty as to make every rehearsal of it a rewarding pleasure to everyone present."

LOCAL MAN FINED FOR INTOXICATION

Arrested Sunday on charges of intoxication and disturbing the peace, Tilman David Fox, 44 Windsor Lane, was fined $20 Monday morning by City Judge John C. Mead.

Complainant Dr. Adele Howland, exercising her right as a citizen placed Mr. Fox under technical arrest, assisted by Officers P. R. Bird and William Mackie.

Philosophy of Law Under Discussion For Pro-America

Three outstanding essays will be reviewed at the study club meeting of the Pro-America Foothill Towns Unit from 10 to 12 o'clock tomorrow morning at the Round Table Room of the Arcadia Journal.

The topic, "Classical Tradition and Cultural Inheritance of America," will consist of Locke's "Second Essay on Government," John Stewart Mills' "Liberty," and Montesquieu's "Spirit of Laws."

Mrs. Fred Wasson will discuss the World Federalist movement.

Mrs. Fred Morgan of this city is chairman of the Foothill Towns Unit.

Fire Chiefs Halt Blaze

Fire Chief James C. Heasley and Assistant Chief Vernon Udehl extinguished a small rug fire last Friday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh F. Colvin, 585 W. Sierra Madre boulevard.

Without sounding an alarm, the two fire officials put out the blaze, which resulted when Mr. and Mrs. Calvin's two infant children accidentally upset an open electric heater in their second-floor playroom.

Slight damage was reported to the rug and surrounding floor. Chief Heasley commented that "catching this fire in time prevented a possible tragedy."

Cub Pack 1 Will Meet Tomorrow

Awards for achievements completed during the month of January will be presented Cub Scouts of Sierra Madre Pack 1 at the February Pack Meeting Friday evening, Feb. 17.

Cubmaster Marcus Woodward announced that the meeting will begin at 7:45 p. m. in the City School Auditorium. He urged parents and friends to be present.

POLICE BLOTTER

DOGS! They're taken away to the pound every day.

A car reported as "tipsy". No driver was found on arrival, it being suspected that instead of the car being tipsy, the driver must have been unloaded.

What the reporter thought was a "run-away house," as written by "Tex" Gotcher, was found to be a horse instead.

Missing persons, malicious mischief, unwelcome solicitors, petty thefts, arguments between drunks, boys digging up a lot, a lot of what, who knows, elderly lady out-of-hand, emergency run to hospital, a fight, imagine that!

Police find a man asleep in his chair, his last sleep.

DOGS! DOGS! CATS! Several emergency calls have come in sequence. Malicious mischief is in the wind. Prowler. A "T.C." Another of the same. Boys bring in a large cash register. Attempted burglary.

The new crossing "Sallies" are already taking a beating. These little girls standing absolutely still at a crosswalk surely do not run into drivers' cars—or do they?

Girl falls off her bike. Two very small children upset a portable electric heater in the absence of mother from the playroom. Before mamma returned, the room was well filled with smoke, and, perhaps tragedy was prevented.

Hit-and-run driver reported. LOUD PARTY!

A grand theft auto was cancelled after car was found where the driver had left it.

Man going up the Wilson Trail. He was carrying a rifle, that's the difference.

Lady just came in to tell that she run into a crossing Stop Sign. Her car got the worst of the deal. It's a pretty big sign, too.

Fritz Roess Hurt In Auto Accident

Fritz Roess of Roess' Market is slowly recovering from a serious automobile accident in which he sustained broken ribs, a broken hip and a dislocated shoulder.

The smash-up occurred February 5 at Rosemead and Garvey boulevards. Mr. Roess was turning right and was hit by a car reported to be traveling 70 miles an hour. Both cars are reported to have been demolished.

After several days at the Temple City Emergency Hospital, Mr. Roess returned to his home at 83 W. Highland.

Mud Bogs Down Jeep

An adventuresome spirit plus a jeep added up to complications Sunday for Bertram Paul Willis, 16, 1130 Rodeo Drive, Arcadia.

Young Willis drove his family's business jeep up Mount Wilson Trail and past the point where it narrows down to a mere foot path. Sides of the path gave way, and the jeep was stuck solidly in the clay and mud.

All efforts to free the vehicle from the quagmire failed, and Mr. Willis called his father, B. P. Willis, and Sierra Madre police to come to the rescue.

Mr. Willis Sr. said he would use a tractor to liberate the bogged-down jeep.

Officer Fish issued a citation for parking in an area closed to the public.

OFFICER INJURED DIRECTING TRAFFIC

Sierra Madre Police Officer William Mackie was slightly injured Monday while helping direct traffic at Santa Anita Race Track.

Stationed at the main gate, Baldwin and Huntington Dr., Officer Mackie suffered bruised ribs and abrasions when a car struck a wooden barricade, knocking it into his side.

Although confined to his bed Tuesday, the policeman reported back to work Tuesday night.

Mazazine Boosts Wistaria Vine

Sierra Madre and its Wistaria Vine are given a boost in the March issue of Friends, Chevrolet-owners' magazine published by General Motors.

Showing an air-view of the Vine, an accompanying article describes the interesting history of the Vine and how Sierra Madre celebrates its flowering during March and April. A part of the article states:

"From an inconspicuous beginning back in 1893, when it was transplanted from a gallon can, the Wistaria spiraled its way through and around its owners' 10-room house and finally forced them to vacate."

MRS. CHANDLER TO ASSIST ARC CHIEF

The announcement, which came to Sierra Madre in a telegram received by R. C. Lewis, local chapter chairman, stated the names of the ARC drive workers who will serve in an advisory capacity to General Marshall, Red Cross President.

Included among the former Secretary of State's assistants will be Mrs. Norman Chandler, Sierra Madre resident and wife of the Los Angeles Times publisher.

18th CENTURY MUSIC SUNDAY

Three of the four films will be in color. Sweden, long considered a classic of "the middle way" between free enterprise and socialism, will be described from this standpoint in a film entitled, "In Their Own Hands."

'Capsule' Broadcasts Planned by R. C.

When the American Red Cross annual campaign for funds gets underway March 1, 15-minute radio transcriptions featuring famous stars in the entertainment world will be broadcast over Pacific Coast networks.

Called "capsule" transcriptions, the shows are essentially the same as the stars' regular weekly broadcast, without commercials. The programs are in the nature of a salute to Red Cross, with a personal appeal by the stars.

Entertainers taking part in the "short shots" will be Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Jack Benny, Phil Harris-Alice Faye, Judy Canova, and Dicy Haymes in Club 15.

City Still Far Short of Polio Drive Quota

Sierra Madre is still short $838.46 of its March of Dimes quota of $2500. Mrs. Leo Meyer, local Dimes chairman of the Civic Club, declared yesterday.

"In nearly a month of campaigning," Mrs. Meyer said, "we have been able to collect only $1661.54 for this desperate fight against polio."

The drive, originally scheduled to end Jan. 31, was extended two weeks ago—until Feb. 28.

"At the rate money is being received in Sierra Madre, though, the March of Dimes will have to continue through the end of spring—unless all citizens get behind the drive and do some real giving."

During the last week, only $131.54 was realized in local efforts. This figure includes money taken in at the booth in front of the Bank of Sierra Madre (the booth is open on Saturdays), the City School, local theater, and miscellaneous contributions turned in at the City Hall. The "iron lung" coin collectors located in various stores and public buildings have not been opened as yet.

"The Los Angeles County area has fallen short of its needs since 1945," the local chairman said. "And in 1949, the National Foundation advanced a staggering total of $1,103,000 to properly care for our own stricken victims."

This entire area—including Sierra Madre—is not carrying its share of the tremendous weight, she stated.

"We must do it now, before it is too late. Never before has the need been so vital."

Kite Contest Planned For Wednesday

Kites of all sizes and description will compete next Wednesday afternoon, Washington's Birthday, at the City baseball field (behind the water grounds).

The occasion is Explorer Post 108's Kite Contest for Sierra Madre Boy Scouts and Cubs.

According to Grant Raddon, Post treasurer, competition in the two divisions will begin at 2 p. m. Three prizes are planned for each division (Scouts and Cubs), and judging will be based on stunt and high flying. He indicated that the awards would be Scouting equipment.

Kites may be home-made or the "kind you buy in a store," although Explorer Scouts conducting the contest said privately-constructed kites would be given preference in case of a tie.

HURWIT DISPLAYS

CUB PACK WORK

Among the merchants who presented window displays showing Scout activities during Boy Scout Week was Ralph Hurwit of Ralph's Shoe Store, 41 N. Baldwin avenue.

Exhibited in Mr. Hurwit's window are hand-craft and hobby articles created by boys of Cub Pack 1. Rock, stamp, match-cover, shell, and various collections are shown in the display.

Mr. Hurwit, who is assistant Cubmaster of the Pack, said Pack 1 recently added its ninth den, bringing total membership in the unit up to approximately 72. There are eight boys, ages 8 to 11 in each den.

Included in the window were several scrapbooks, plastic model airplanes, bird houses, and wooden shields and swords—all made by the Cubs.

NEWS' Item Filed In Washington

A clipping from the Sierra Madre NEWS has been placed in the Historical Library of the United States Post Office Department, Washington, D. C.

The clipping, which appeared in the Jan. 19 edition of the NEWS, was Percy L. Bonebrake's satirical sketch of Sierra Madre's new Post Office.

Miss Hope Spring, former resident of this city now living in Pasadena, sent a copy of the article to the Post Office Department, and last week received acknowledgement from C. C. Garner, chief inspector of the department. The letter stated:

"I wish to thank you (Miss Spring) for sending us the newspaper clipping from the Sierra Madre NEWS dealing with mode of transporting the mail.

"This clipping will be placed with our historical facts on postal service."

for many years.

One other councilman has announced that he would not run—Henry Nuetzel.

The third post to be on the ballot is held by Kinney who will run.

William Kinney was appointed to the Council in October, 1948, to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Don Jackson. He has been active in promoting recreation projects for the city, and last year he worked out the agreement under which the Nursery School association is building its present quarters.

It was pointed out that during his present term, Kinney has never missed a Council meeting.

In the meantime, City Clerk Lawrence Brain reported that nomination papers have been taken out by Francis Eakman and Alexander Black.

Nomination petitions must be returned to the city clerk March 2 at noon. Voter registration for the city election closes today.

Miss Carter Writes For U. C. Alumni

Annette Carter, granddaughter of Nathan C. Carter, Sierra Madre pioneer and founder, had an article published recently in the California Monthly University of California Alumni magazine.

The article, entitled "Three Women Without Fear," described a trip three UC women traveled alone through Lower California to collect plant specimens for the University Herbarium. Miss Carter is Senior Herbarium Botanist on the Berkeley campus.

The three women, driving a converted World War II weapon carrier, spent three months on the tour, collecting many rare plants and assembling research data. At night, they camped at the side of rough Baja California roads, cooked their food over an open fire, then bedded down in blanket rolls.

In her account, Miss Carter relates that the roads were so crude that driving more than 15 miles per hour was impossible.

"The penalty for 'speeding,'" she writes, "was sure to be a broken spring."

Miss Carter is the brother of
Paul Carter, Naval Reserve
Commander and official in the Matson Lines, who lives at 700
N. Lima.

Greater India Art Will Go On Display

Material for "Art of Greater India," an exhibition which begins March 1 at the Los Angeles County Museum in Exposition Park, is arriving in a steady stream.

Curator of Oriental Art at the museum, Henry Trubner, characterizes the forthcoming show as so wide in scope and so fine in quality that it may well prove the most important showing of its kind in the United States.

Meanwhile, a small collection of Cypriot antiquities, consisting of pottery and small sculpture, is being installed in the Hearst Hall of Ancient Art.
It represents the development of Cypriot plastic art from the Bronze age through the era of Roman Empire.

CITY COUNCIL
From page one

When the service was used in the city before, owners had complained that they were not properly notified, and pets were unnecessarily destroyed.

Councilman William A. Kinney declared that there is "confusion in use of the Park House."

To clear up this confusion he proposed a plan, still to be adopted by the Council, which would set up a schedule for its use.

Under his proposal, use of the Park House would be authorized by the Council or by the public works administrator, and days allotted. All keys will be withdrawn from circulation with only three avail.

able for use of scheduled groups. All organizations using the House would be responsible for damage and cleaning up after use.
Costs of maintaining the House for organizational use would be charged. This would include overtime put in by the park superintendent.

Kinney also suggested that the city engineer look into the possibility of making temporary repairs on the Canyon Bath House so that it could be put into operation next season. He pointed out that a termite report revealed that cost of full rehabilitation would exceed $1100.

A check will also be made to see if a light can be placed outside the Youth Hut.

Councilman Kinney suggested that a plaque bearing the names of Sierra Madre servicemen who lost their lives in World War II be placed in some appropriate place, possibly the Park House. Attorney Noren Eaton, however, pointed out that the Kiwanis Club already had this project in mind. The club has planned, he said, to commemorate the war dead with a memorial hall at the new library building.

Councilman Henry Korsmeier, during the Council meeting, told Contractor Harold Spears that his bond money wouldn't be returned until street development of his tract on East Grandview avenue met city specifications.

A letter from City Engineer Fred Pack was read which said that the Spears' new street, Sycamore place, provided inadequate drainage and was never approved by the city engineer. Pack recommended that return of the bond "be held up."

"There's nothing we can do until the city's requirements are met," Korsmeier said.

The slight audience at the meeting got a laugh when the Planning Commission's letter was read recommending an ordinance banning service stations and garages from using sidewalks and parkways for parking areas.

"I know who the instigator of that was," said Mayor Milton Steinberger. "But the trouble's been all eliminated." (He was referring to the Chevron station at Auburn and Sierra Madre boulevard. He owns the property.)

"You can pass a law, but I can't see where you'll get anywhere," the mayor said. T. Guy Cornyn, city attorney, said: "I don't think there's anything personal in it."

"It's now a police matter—no new law is necessary. But we'll wait until after April before we arrest the Mayor."

"Refer to the police department, and I'll see the chief tonight," said the mayor.

The Council approved purchase of pipes and equipment for the water department to repair pumps Nos. 2 and 3. Cost $415.

H. K. Pottenger of 520 1/2 Auburn Way in the Canyon asked the Council to adequately repair the foot bridge across the wash south of the swimming pool, but the Council asked: Whose bridge is it? The Flood Control's? No one knew, so it was referred to the city engineer.

Referred to the mayor was a letter from Albin V. Carlson of 471 Foothill avenue asking for a job as member of either Planning Commission or the Library Board.

A letter was ordered sent to Mrs. Marvin Coats of 240 East Sierra Madre boulevard explaining that she could get the Thursday edition of the Pasadena Independent by subscribing to the paper for the full five days a week.

She complained a city ordinance banning throwaway bills and circulars prevented her from getting the Independent's Thursday "shopper" which was broadcast throughout the town. The law does not prevent free distribution to persons who request delivery, it was pointed out.

The Council held first reading, preparatory to adoption of the 1949 Uniform Building Code. It contains the revisions adopted since the 1943 code. This code is used by most cities of the state.

Announcement was made again that a hearing of protests on the opening of Monterey Lane would be held March 14.

State Justice Will Address Local Lodge

Louis C. Drapeau, Associate Justice of the California District Court of Appeals, will address members of Sierra Madre Lodge No. 408, F. and A. M., when he is guest of honor at a dinner Friday, Feb. 24.

Having many years of service in Masonry to his credit,

Justice Drapeau is Senior Gr. Warden. His father-in-law, Past Gr. Master Reese, laid the cornerstone of the Sierra Madre Masonic Temple in 1924, and in 1925, was present during dedicatory ceremonies for the building.

Most Worshipful Master John W. Adams said a chicken dinner is being planned for the occasion, which will begin at 6:30 p. m. at the Temple.

The dinner and program are open to Masons, their wives and friends.
